Some of the things we may discuss as you rewrite your destiny and possess your Canaan include:*

Loving the Character of YOU

As Dr. Seuss said, “Today you are You, that is truer than true. There is no one alive who is Youer than You.” We reaffirm the TRUE story of you, solidify your Canaan Purpose, and find practical ways for you to enjoy being “Youer than You” today. Because the key to loving your destiny is to enjoy being Fully You every single day!

Plotting “Real” Life

Not only will you affect the lives of those around you, but you’ll be delighted at how much easier – and more fun – all of your life turns out to be.

Slaying the Giants

Feel a giant or two standing between you and your destiny? We’ll analyze the giant for what he is and break the disempowering cycle. You were created for this beautiful destiny, after all, now go live it fully!

Dreaming Your Destiny . . . and Getting It
